

Please join Silicon Valley JACL

For a Meet & Greet with John Marshall and a talk about his work and workshop he will be doing on September 29th at Yu-Ai Kai Akiyama Center.

John Marshall:works in fabric

John Marshall is an American fiber artist specializing in natural dyes and the traditional Japanese techniques of katazome (stencil dyeing) and tsutsugaki (cone drawing). He is internationally noted for his use of color and line to create truly unique one-of-a-kind art-to-wear, turning traditionally inspired aesthetics into contemporary treasures for daily life. As a teacher he is recognized for his ability to adapt traditional recipes and methods to suit local climates, resources, and temperaments - and for his ability to distill complex techniques into easy-to-understand steps.

WUMC Sixth Street Meeting Room

Friday, September 28, 2018, 7:00pm - 9:00pm

565 North Sixth Street, 2nd floor (next to Okayama Restaurant)

Need to climb one flight of stairs

Light refreshments and drinks

Yu-Ai Kai and Silicon Valley JACL present

John Marshall Indigo Dye Workshop

Saturday, September 29th, See flyer for details